MICHAEL DAUER | EDUCATOR

Bio / Class Description

Michael Dauer is an international choreographer | educator based in New York City. Currently he assists Emmy Award-Winning and Tony Award-Nominated choreographer Joshua Bergasse (SMASH, On the Town), has danced for Emmy Award-Winning choreographer Tyce Diorio (SYTYCD), and was the Dance Captain for the National Tour of the Broadway Musical Chicago (Gary Chryst, Scott Farris).

Michael's class begins with a warm-up focusing on technique and strengthening while the center combination will encourage the development of character through movement, which emphasizes rhythm through elements of classic jazz and contemporary styles. His goal is to help dancers find their unique personal style that will inform their movement. Michael creates a supportive and positive environment where students feel safe to try new things and ask questions.
